ROUNDTABLE

On Tuesday, March 22, NCM mediators gathered for a mediator roundtable. Even though Eugene Smith (left) and Dick Hendrian (right) seem to be diligently studying documents, Kathy Lame's expression captures the fact that we also had a good time. Our next mediator roundtable is scheduled for Tuesday, June 14.

FORTY-HOUR TRAINING

There is still time to sign-up for the forty-hour training.

Wednesday, April 6	1:00pm – 5:00pm
Thursday, April 7	8:00am – 5:00pm
Friday, April 8	8:00am – 5:00pm

Wednesday, April 13	1:00pm – 5:00pm
Thursday, April 14	8:00am – 5:00pm
Friday, April 15	8:00am – 5:00pm

If you know of someone who is interested in taking the course, tell them to call NCM at 487.1771. The training will be held at the Charlevoix Public Library.

IMPORTANT DATE

In response to an idea that was expressed in the mediator survey NCM conducted last year, there will be a mediator/board of directors recognition luncheon on Monday, May 16. The location has not yet been determined. We do know, however, that it will begin at noon and be over by 1:30pm. There will be a short program, and the annual awards will be presented at that time. Most importantly, it will be a time that we can all gather together and enjoy each others' company.

THEATRE PARTY

This year's Theatre Party a huge success. Delicious food, fascinating company, exciting door prizes, and good movies were enjoyed by all. A special thanks goes to all of the participating restaurants, sponsors, and door-prize and in kind donators.

FINE LINE

As mediators (even if we are attorneys), we cannot practice law. Therefore, it is okay to help someone fill out a wage assignment, but it is inappropriate for the mediator to bring the subject up.

THINKING OF YOU

David Pizzuti's son broke his leg right after he won a skiing trophy. Hope all is healing well.
