IN THE NEWS REVIEW

“Joyce Herbert (left) and Joan Robinson (third from right), co-chairs of the Take-A-Seat for Chairity auction, present $5,000 checks to representatives of area agencies benefiting from the “Chairity” fundraiser, sponsored by the First Congregational Church of Charlevoix. Proceeds are presented to (from left) Lisa Ashley of Hospice of Little Traverse Bay; Sue Moody of Challenge Mountain’ Jane Millar of Northern Community Mediation’ Scott Kelly of BASES; and Marika Reed of Hospice of Little Traverse Bay.

CONDOLENCES

A month ago, it looked as if Bob Harkness’ wife Pat was doing well. Unfortunately, that was a short lived moment. Bob lost his wife of 48 years this month. Our sympathy goes out to Bob and his family.

WHAT TALENT!

Adolph Cwik entered three of his songs in the Boyne City Song Fest, and he has been busy as a guitarist at Horizon Center in Traverse City, and Coffee Connect and Papa Lou’s in Petoskey.

DIVORCE TRAINING

NCM and Conflict Resolution Services (CRS) in Traverse City have partnered to offer the 44-hour, SCAO-approved, divorce training in October. The dates, times and locations are as follows”

City Hall, 210 State Street, Charlevoix

Day 1	Thursday, October 23	8:00am-5:00pm
Day 2	Friday, October 24	8:00am-5:00pm
Day 3	Saturday, October 25	8:00am-2:00pm

Garfield Township Hall, 3848 Veterans Drive, TC

IN THE NEWS IN JUNE

The Honorable Fred Mulhauser recently received funding from the Emmet-Charlevoix County Bar Association to help provide appropriate clothing for juveniles who appear in court. While on the subject of Fred, you need to know that not only does he appear as an actor in our Shoplifting DVD, he evidently is a natural Thespian. He recently joined that Board of Little Traverse Civic Theatre.

SHOPLIFTING PREMIER

In the near future, you will receive an invitation to the premiere of our Preventative Shoplifting Program.
