THEATRE PARTY

Rebeca Deckinga and Maggie Poxson are hoping that they win one of the great door prizes at the Theatre Party on Tuesday, March 11. Door prizes include gift certificates from BC Pizza, Bearcub Outfitters, LaDolce Vita Salon & Spa, Sky's the Limit, and Southwoods Restaurant. Door prizes also include tickets to concerts by Blissfest Music Organization and Crooked Tree Arts Center. And, American Spoon has donated a basket of goodies.

This year's featured restaurants are BC Pizza of Petoskey, Bob-In Again, City Park Grill, Feast, Grand Traverse Pie Company, Julienne Tomatoes, and Kilwin's.

Inkind donations are another reason why our Theatre Party is successful: Pepsi Bottling Group, Petoskey Cinema, Petoskey News-Review, Sign & Design, Taylor Rental, and The Print Shop.

If you have not already purchased your tickets, just stop by the center to do so. Tickets are $25 each. That entitles you to wonderful appetizers, a chance to win a door prize, and a movie of your choice. And, if you have not sold any tickets, do not be shy. We can use your help

IN THE NEWS

On February 3, Ray Kiogima was featured in the Sunday Detroit paper for the role he played in helping to write the curriculum for teaching Anishinaabemowin as a foreign language in the Harbor Springs School District. Anishinaabemowin is the native language of the Odawa Indians.

ANOTHER THANK YOU

Lisa Blanchard, Ron Moore and Steve Tresidder came forward to help provide information about NCM at Project Connect. We could not have done it without them.

QUALITY ASSURANCE

If you were not able to attend the Mediator Roundtable on February 12 and would like more information on the Quality Assurance Program that is being implemented, just call the office at 487.1771.

CONGRATULATIONS

Although we do not have the details, we do know that Mary Catherine Hannah had a baby girl. Bring her by the office. We would love to see her.
