Another Successful Theatre Party

On Monday, March 13, Northern Community Mediation (NCM) held its 13th annual Theatre Party at the Petoskey Cinema. As in the past, from 5:30pm to 7:00pm guests enjoyed a delicious array of food from seven different restaurants in the area. During that time, 21 door prizes were distributed, and the winner of the 50/50 raffle received $262.50, $62 of which was donated back to NCM. Then, at 7:00pm people went to the movie of their choices.

Almost 200 people came to the fundraiser. There were 58 sponsors and supporters of the event, as well as five companies that made in kind donations.

The most popular movie was Kong, followed by The Shack. Just in case anyone is interested, the least attended movie was Fifty Shades Darker, followed by LEGO Batman.

NCM will hold its 14th annual Theatre Party on Monday, March 12, 2018. Prior to that date, however, NCM will host its 2nd annual Theatre Party in Charlevoix on Monday, October 9. Details of both events will be available as the dates get closer.

Northern Community Mediation is a non-profit organization that provides an alternative means of resolving conflict. Trained mediators, who meet with the parties involved in a dispute, facilitate so that the individuals themselves can resolve the conflict
