

A FUN DAY

NCM's table at Women Can/Women Do

NCM staff had lots of fun designing one of the tables for the Women Can/Women Do luncheon, which was held on Wednesday, September 21 at the Lange Center in Bay Harbor. For obvious reasons, the NCM table got a lot of attention. And, the people sitting at the NCM table received a witch's hat, a witch wine glass, a witch's broom and a Witches Brew bottle of wine as their favors.

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

"Always look for the people who are helping... When I read the newspaper and see the news on television I look for the people who were trying to help. One of the most important parts of growing up is learning to talk and play about our feelings. Some people wonder if Mister Rogers ever gets angry. Of course I do, especially when I hear about people hurting other people or when somebody hurts me." ~ Mr. Rogers

ADVANCED MEDIATOR TRAINING

There is still room in the upcoming advanced mediator training. From 9:00am to 12:00pm on Friday, October 14, Standards of Conduct will be offered via Zoom. One hour of the four-hour training will be done asynchronously prior to the training. Go to <https://www.northernmediation.org/workshops-trainings/> on the NCM website to register for the training.

CHARLEVOIX THEATRE PARTY

On Monday, October 10, Northern Community Mediation will be holding its fifth, interrupted annual theatre party in Charlevoix. There are a few changes from the previous years. From 5:30pm to 7:00pm, guests will enjoy appetizers and soft drinks at The Vue. Wine will be available for purchase. At 6:15, the 50/50 raffle drawing will take place. Then, at 7:00, everyone will be able to go to the movie of his/her choice at Cinema III. An added perk is that if you cannot go to the movie the night of the event, you will be given a coupon to go on the date and time of your choice.

Tickets are $35 each or two for $65—a $5 discount. NCM relies (as do most non-profit organizations) on its fundraising events to help maintain a balanced budget. That is why your support of the Charlevoix Theatre Party is so important.

A special thanks goes to our sponsors and supporters.
